

German

As German is one of the most important European languages, especially in Business, Science and Technology, the language provides a gateway to careers in many areas. As a central and industrial hub of the European Union it is beneficial to have an understanding of the workings of such a dynamic economy and also an appreciation of the German 'Volk' and their rich culture.

The aim of the subject at all levels from KS4 to KS5 is to provide a platform for the students to become involved with all aspects of the German-speaking world, from the arts to the sciences, from Goethe and Grass, Strauss and Beethoven, to Haber and Einstein. This rich tapestry provides a profound basis for the success of the German nation which will endow the student with a knowledge of some of the most important landmarks in European history.
