Dear Parent/Guardian

Re: Keynes Society at Eton College

We have been invited to attend the following lectures being given by renowned economists:

Tuesday 12th February
John Micklethwait

John Micklethwait is the ex-editor-in-chief of the Economist, and is now editor-in-chief of Bloomberg News. He has written a number of very influential books on the future of globalisation and the effects of the Fourth Industrial Revolution on the viability of the state. His biography can be seen here:

Tuesday 26th February
George Osborne

George Osborne was Chancellor of the Exchequer from 2010-2016. Since then, he has also taken up roles as Chair of the Northern Powerhouse Partnership, as an advisor to Blackrock, as an honorary professor of economics at Manchester University, and as editor of the Evening Standard. His biography can be seen here:

The lectures are being held at Eton College start at 8.45pm. Students will need to make their own transport arrangements and meet us at the Porter's Lodge, Eton no later than 8.30pm. The lecture will be finished no later than 10.00pm.

We are limited to 10 students and will operate on a first come first served basis, so if you would like your daughter/son to attend one or both of these events, please click on the link in the email to complete consent online or go to <https://www.surveymonkey.co.uk/r/EtonFeb19>, to complete the consent.

The deadline for consent is Friday 1st February 2019.

This is a voluntary activity and we reserve the right to cancel should there be insufficient interest.

Thank you for your support.

Yours sincerely

Mrs M Styles
Head of Economics and Business Studies
